Glen Adair SINGLE HANDED

Glen Adair's passion for music started as a child and led him into a career in music by the age of fifteen. It progressed from playing in those early bands to being a full time musician and continues to grow to this day. After many years of honing his craft, cutting his teeth on gigs across Western Canada and into the Northern Territories, Glen began writing his own music. His recently released 14 song CD "Trying to Have a Life" bears the fruit of those many musical experiences. Single Handed showcases Adair's strong musicianship and vocal abilities as he delivers classic rock and country favorites along side his original music.
